Permitting refugees to attend school in the state they are living in and in turn being allowed to work in Germany will be delayed until then. Presently, there are currently 40,000 refugees in Austria and 100,000 in Germany. The yearly refugee quotas of the European Union are far from being met and most of the refugees are living in the countries bordering Austria, most notably the Czech Republic and Hungary. I would guess Google will make it easy for you to switch to a premium account. Also, if you're not taking advantage of the full capabilities of Drive, I suggest you do. You will lose a lot of time in the future if you never have done anything with any of the data on Drive. ----- nateabele I'm not sure this really solves the problem. You have a company-owned iOS phone, and a company-owned Android phone. Could you sync them across to get the better plan? ~~~ aaronveble With cloud storage you can store data from any device and access it on any device. You can also access the data from several devices. ----- dlthomas So it's $5/mo for 5GB of storage? How much do you have to download for that to be cheap enough to consider? ---- aaronveble The cost of storage is $0.05/GB. That means you will have to download 5GB to spend the $5 to get storage at the Google Drive plan you mention. ---- dlthomas I'm not sure I follow. My point was that "how much do I have to download" is roughly $0.05/GB, and that's in addition to "how much does this cost for a month?" How is this not a higher number than $5/month? f30f4ceada
