Description:

About the Author A geographic mutt, Kelly Cochran has lived on the East Coast, the West Coast, and in many places in between. During her childhood, she attended thirteen different schools, in twelve years, all before going off to college at the age of seventeen. To her surprise, she turned out somewhat normal and went on to have a 20-year career in information technology. Currently she lives in St. Louis, Missouri with her husband and three dogs. Her son lives in the Washington, D.C. area where he never tires of Kelly's efforts to get him to move closer. When she isn't writing, she divides her time between managing Internet-based retail businesses, talking to her mother, using her high-tech cell phone to play Wordsmith and Tap Fish, and wondering why she doesn't have enough time to finish writing her next novel. Kelly is a member of Sisters in Crime. Find out more at www.KellyCochran.com
