Description:

From A Halloween crime wave has come to usually tranquil Cape Willington, Maine, where farmer Candy and her friend Maggie run a pumpkin patch for extra money during the town's annual autumn festival. This year a real body turns up amid some fake tombstones deployed for the Haunted Hayride. Candy's investigation into the crime leads to the powerful Pruitt family, whose past may hold secrets that could explain not only the murder but also the rash of other crimes gripping the community. Recipes and plenty of small-town pumpkin-festival details add ambience and charm to an entertaining cozy that will please fans of Paige Shelton and Denise Swanson. --Amy Alessio --This text refers to the edition.

Review Praise for the Candy Holliday Mysteries

"[A] well-written series."—Fresh Fiction

"A fun, atmospheric mystery."—The Mystery Reader

"A savory read, which brings the people of coastal Maine to life."—Bangor (ME) Daily News
